

Introduction

Storyteller Priscilla Howe, a native New Englander, comes to us from Lawrence, KS, where she lives with her orange cat, Joe Fish. A former children's librarian, Priscilla has been a full-time storyteller and puppeteer since 1993. She travels all over the country and abroad, telling stories in schools, libraries, conferences, festivals and coffeehouses. She's always searching for new stories to tell, as well as for the best restaurant pie on earth.
